

Social Events

Pierian Club

Lesson for Thursday.

The Pierian Club will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. S. H. Madden, 1100 Van Buren street.

The following questions will be discussed on the third lesson on Rosen's "Rosmersholm":

What is revealed in the conversation between Kroll and Rosmer in act second?

Comment on Martensgard. Have his "liberal" principles given him truth and freedom?

What is the point of view from which Rebecca and Rosmer see themselves and their relations?

What is suggested as to Rosmer's heredity?

Comment on Ulric's model.

Why did Rebecca reject Rosmer's offer of marriage?

—o—

Sophomores Picnic.

The Amarillo High School Sophomores were not to be outdone Monday by the threatening weather, and making the most of circumstances, had a very delightful holiday. They gathered at the school building at an early hour Monday morning and the heavy clouds and frequent showers could not be risked by the chaperones, so the party was extended the hospitality of the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hall, 1209 Harrison street, which about thirty girls and boys readily accepted.

The morning was spent at games and the picnic lunches were served in real picnic fashion.

In the afternoon the sun shone brightly and the hay wagons were called and the party took a jaunt to Amarillo creek, where a very happy afternoon was enjoyed. Mrs. C. H. Hall and Miss Stubbs chaperoned the party.

—o—

Mrs. Cooper Entertained

The Needle Club.

Mrs. H. H. Cooper entertained the Needle Club yesterday afternoon at her home, 509 Harrison street, at a very enjoyable meeting. The uncertain weather conditions brought forth only a small attendance of club members, but several guests were present, including Mrs. Lynn, Mrs. Duren, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Brody, Miss Bone, Miss Triplett, Miss Baker and Miss Griffin.

A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed, the ladies busily plying their needles to the strains of merry conversation.

The hostess served a delicious hot luncheon, which was thoroughly enjoyable on such a dreary afternoon. The menu was creamed chicken, peach salad, hot biscuits and hot tea.

—o—

B. W. M. U. Program

For Today.

The B. W. M. U. of the First Baptist church will meet in the church parlors this afternoon at 3 o'clock and the following program has been arranged for the meeting:

Subject, "Italy."

Leader, Mrs. Brittain.

"How Rome Looks Today," Mrs. W. A. Rice.

"Building the Walls of Rome," Mrs. F. M. Hedrick.

"What 1,500 Years of Papal Rule Has Given Italy," Mrs. Prescott.

What Protestantism Can Give Italy.

Mrs. A. McKnight.

"What the Southern Baptist Convention Is Giving Italy," Mrs. G. C. Kilbourn.

"The Gift of Gifts," Mrs. J. M. Oakes.

—o—

St. Andrews' Guild

With Mrs. Cockrell.

St. Andrews' Episcopal Guild met Monday afternoon in a very interesting and pleasant session with Mrs. Ida Cockrell at her home, 1206 Lincoln street.

Rev. Trappell, rector of St. Andrews' Episcopal church, made an excellent talk to the ladies on parish work. There was a real good attendance of members and the talk of Rev. Trappell was very much appreciated and enjoyed.

The meeting was brought to a close with a happy social hour, during which time brick tea cream and cake were served the guests.

—o—

Central Presbyterian

Woman's Auxiliary.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Central Presbyterian church will have the second lesson on Latin-America for their study at the meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church parlors. Miss Cunningham will be the leader.

Devotional, Mrs. J. M. Neely.

"Biography of the Pioneer Missionaries of Latin-America," Mrs. W. H. King.

"Study of Missionaries and Mission Stations," Business.

—o—

Announcements.

Bell Bennett Missionary Society of Polk-Street Methodist church will meet with Mrs. J. L. Scott, 2008 Tyler street, this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The Entre Nous Club will be entertained this afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock by Mrs. H. W. Stillwell at the home of Mrs. Byrd, 1204 Taylor street.

—o—

Persons.

Mrs. C. A. Chesshir and little son, Charles Brock, left yesterday for an extended trip to Hot Springs and Nashville, Ark.

—o—

Carnegie Gift Under Fire

(New Haven, Conn., Special to the New York Times)

There are indications that the gift offered by Andrew Carnegie to the city of New Haven of three branch libraries for the outskirts, costing $65,000, will be refused, although the offer was made at the request of the city board of library directors.

As soon as the offer was announced a storm of criticism broke out in the city newspapers, which contended that New Haven was able to buy its own libraries.

The library board reported Mr. Carnegie's offer today to the city board of finance, which was against acting on the suggestion of Mr. Carnegie that the city appropriate a small sum for the maintenance of the libraries before they were erected.

All Want Ads must be accompanied by cash.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WANTED AT ONCE—$1,000 loan on good real estate. P. O. box 522. 147-31c

WANTED—A girl for dining-room and chamber work. 606 Tyler st. 41c

WANTED—Woman for general housework; two in family; good wages. Call 1501 Fillmore street. 147-3c

FOR SALE—One share in Palo Duro Club. Box 84, Canyon, Tex. 147-3p

FOR RENT—One furnished front bedroom in modern home. 904 Fillmore. Phone 809. 146-6c

FOR SALE—Lubbock Hotel; good location; will be sold at a bargain. For particulars address P. O. box 773, Lubbock, Tex. 147-11c

—o—

HOW'S THIS?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out all obligations made by his firm.

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for Constipation.

For Monument to Gen. Shields CARROLLTON, Mo., April 22.

The commission recently appointed by Gov. Major to supervise the erection of a monument to the late Gen. James Shields, soldier and United States senator of three States, met here today and organized.

—o—

Rebuilding Town.

BENJAMIN, Tex., April 22.—The business portion of the town of Vera, 14 miles east of here, which was destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, except one business house, is rapidly rebuilding.

—o—

Arbor Day in South Dakota

PIERRE, S. D., April 22.—In response to the proclamation of Governor Byrne today was observed as Arbor Day by the public schools and various societies throughout South Dakota.

—o—

Tramp Shelter Burns

(Hastings-on-Hudson Dispatch to New York Sun.)

The Rowley tramp shelter here, known to every follower of the broad highway as a sure lodging for the night, was burned to the ground last night. William Rowley, a wealthy land owner, built the small shelter some years ago as an abiding place for wayfarers bound to New York. His friendship was recognized by the police of the road. The police too knew the place and often a Manhattan detective would quietly enter the little shack at night and let his dark lantern flash in the faces of the sleepers in search for some suspicious character wanted in the city.

Thousands of tramps have found a night's lodging and a simple meal during the shelter's existence.

—o—

Lady Scott Comes Home

(London Wireless Telegraph to New York Times)

Lady Scott arrived in London this afternoon, having traveled overland via Brindisi on her long return trip from New Zealand, whither she went to meet her husband.

Nobody awaited her return more anxiously than her 3-year-old son, Pete. All the morning he played about the house in Buckingham Palace road, running from room to room and peeping excitedly through the windows. He knew his father could not come with his mother, for a few days ago he was told that "Daddy" would not come back this time—perhaps some other time. He was quite satisfied and believed that his mother will go away again soon, on a long journey to fetch "Daddy" home. Some day he will know the whole story of his father's great career and courageous end; today it would serve no purpose to tell him.

His meeting with his mother today was the greatest event in Peter's life up to now. Lady Scott reached home soon after 2 o'clock. Peter stood on the doorstep and gave her a single hug and kiss and uttered a few expressions of supreme delight. Mother and son soon withdrew to their own apartments.

FARM FACTS.

(By Peter Radford, President-Farmers' Union.)

A touch of nature makes the whole world kin.

The farmer who is successful plans as he plows.

Confidence is the companion of success. Have faith in yourself.

The worth of a farm is the worth of the individual operating it.

The farmer's work is from sun to sun, but his wife's work is never done.

No farmer can afford to buy a thing he can raise, no matter how cheap it is.

Take good roads for your text and go everywhere preaching the gospel of better farm conditions.

An up-to-date farmer must have an accurate knowledge of today and a clear vision of tomorrow.

When a man tries to get something for nothing, about the only thing he acquires is experience.

You can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear, but you can make a good road out of a bad one.

Even an iron watch-dog can't keep the wolf from your door—the secret lies in scientific cultivation and sensible marketing.

The successful farmer practices a system of rotation and plants leguminous crops to store plant food and inject new life into his soil.

Some true lessons in thrift and patience may be learned from an occasional study of the gentle men in her everyday walks of life.

To build a state many forces are required and happy are the builders where co-operation and harmony prevail.

Overproduction and crop mortgages force the farmer into ruinous competition with each other. The remedy lies in organization and in co-operation in marketing.

—o—

Arbor Day in South Dakota

PIERRE, S. D., April 22.—In response to the proclamation of Governor Byrne today was observed as Arbor Day by the public schools and various societies throughout South Dakota.

—o—

Rebuilding Town.

BENJAMIN, Tex., April 22.—The business portion of the town of Vera, 14 miles east of here, which was destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, except one business house, is rapidly rebuilding.

—o—

Arbor Day in South Dakota

PIERRE, S. D., April 22.—In response to the proclamation of Governor Byrne today was observed as Arbor Day by the public schools and various societies throughout South Dakota.

—o—

Tramp Shelter Burns

(Hastings-on-Hudson Dispatch to New York Sun.)

The Rowley tramp shelter here, known to every follower of the broad highway as a sure lodging for the night, was burned to the ground last night. William Rowley, a wealthy land owner, built the small shelter some years ago as an abiding place for wayfarers bound to New York. His friendship was recognized by the police of the road. The police too knew the place and often a Manhattan detective would quietly enter the little shack at night and let his dark lantern flash in the faces of the sleepers in search for some suspicious character wanted in the city.

Thousands of tramps have found a night's lodging and a simple meal during the shelter's existence.

—o—

Lady Scott Comes Home

(London Wireless Telegraph to New York Times)

Lady Scott arrived in London this afternoon, having traveled overland via Brindisi on her long return trip from New Zealand, whither she went to meet her husband.

Nobody awaited her return more anxiously than her 3-year-old son, Pete. All the morning he played about the house in Buckingham Palace road, running from room to room and peeping excitedly through the windows. He knew his father could not come with his mother, for a few days ago he was told that "Daddy" would not come back this time—perhaps some other time. He was quite satisfied and believed that his mother will go away again soon, on a long journey to fetch "Daddy" home. Some day he will know the whole story of his father's great career and courageous end; today it would serve no purpose to tell him.

His meeting with his mother today was the greatest event in Peter's life up to now. Lady Scott reached home soon after 2 o'clock. Peter stood on the doorstep and gave her a single hug and kiss and uttered a few expressions of supreme delight. Mother and son soon withdrew to their own apartments.

HOW FASHIONS ORIGINATE.

(New York Sun.)

That many of the fashions which became famous in their day and have come down to our own were due to chance or accident is now a matter of history.

One of the kings of France came to the throne a child of 10; he wore his hair in long ringlets all about the head. Immediately men and women coiffed themselves likewise.

The same monarch was bald at 30, and being a lover of all that was beautiful and feminine, he ordered the elaborate wig which was taken up and revealed in during many reigns.

One day a court leader happened to be visiting and his hostess was late arriving at the salon. The young man fell asleep and the two children, the guest and to play a trick, tied his hair all together. The little girls, fearing to be caught, ran away and the young man never knew of the curious picture the back of his wig presented. Other visitors discovered the garish, laughed at the ribbon, and the young count declared bare hair and meant to keep it always so from his neck and shoulders. Within a few days the entire nobility found the scheme an excellent one and adopted the idea.

The pannier was introduced by a queen to cover a misplaced hip bone. It was an actress who finally threw the pannier aside after it had been fashionable half a century. One evening just before she was to appear on the stage the actress discovered that one pannier was entirely detached in off the dress it was thought was spoiled by a rival.

The actress and her maid quickly thought the matter over and both together quickly tore off the offending member of the costume. The actress donned the dress, but, of course, it presented a ridiculous appearance. So the other pannier was removed and the slim young woman appeared on the stage more supple and graceful than ever. The audience at first gaped, then admired, and the next day all of London decided to imitate the actress and her severe skirt.

The origin of the beauty spot is no less interesting. The Duchess de Montmorillon suffered with a boil on the cheek and put on a bit of black mixture over night, said to be healing. In the morning she either forgot to wash her face or did not use enough care—so the story goes—and the inattentive or malicious servant allowed her mistress to appear "before the world" with her face spotted. Powdered and perfumed, Montmorillon received her callers, who found the black spot charming, so much so that before night they had anointed their faces with the black ointment.

To come down to present time, the feather boa was originated less than twenty years ago in Boston. In an idle moment an apprentice in a feather establishment sewed the discarded bits and ends of poor plumes together and strung them about her neck. The other girls laughed at the trimming, the head of the department found it pretty and the order was given that no costumes in the form of plumes be thrown in the waste basket. All parts of the plume were kept, sewed on to a ribbon, the entire thing curled and long ribbon loops put at each end, and the feather boa was the success of the season.

—o—

Tramp Shelter Burns

(Hastings-on-Hudson Dispatch to New York Sun.)

The Rowley tramp shelter here, known to every follower of the broad highway as a sure lodging for the night, was burned to the ground last night. William Rowley, a wealthy land owner, built the small shelter some years ago as an abiding place for wayfarers bound to New York. His friendship was recognized by the police of the road. The police too knew the place and often a Manhattan detective would quietly enter the little shack at night and let his dark lantern flash in the faces of the sleepers in search for some suspicious character wanted in the city.

Thousands of tramps have found a night's lodging and a simple meal during the shelter's existence.

—o—

Lady Scott Comes Home

(London Wireless Telegraph to New York Times)

Lady Scott arrived in London this afternoon, having traveled overland via Brindisi on her long return trip from New Zealand, whither she went to meet her husband.

Nobody awaited her return more anxiously than her 3-year-old son, Pete. All the morning he played about the house in Buckingham Palace road, running from room to room and peeping excitedly through the windows. He knew his father could not come with his mother, for a few days ago he was told that "Daddy" would not come back this time—perhaps some other time. He was quite satisfied and believed that his mother will go away again soon, on a long journey to fetch "Daddy" home. Some day he will know the whole story of his father's great career and courageous end; today it would serve no purpose to tell him.

His meeting with his mother today was the greatest event in Peter's life up to now. Lady Scott reached home soon after 2 o'clock. Peter stood on the doorstep and gave her a single hug and kiss and uttered a few expressions of supreme delight. Mother and son soon withdrew to their own apartments.

PIANO CO.'S ADVERTISER

A SOLDIER OF FORTUNE.

Special to The News.

DALLAS, Tex., April 22.—Sidney F. M. Carragher, advertising manager of the Leyhe Piano Company, whose headquarters are in Dallas, has had an adventurous career in all parts of the world. In speaking of his life, he says:

"I have seen several sides of this interesting old world. Born in Sydney, Australia, of Scotch-Irish parents, I entered early in life the field of journalism. I have traveled in every continent and served with British troops in Egypt and India and also in South Africa during the Boer war."

"Before coming south I did newspaper and advertising work in the north for three years. Coming to Texas two years ago, I became advertising manager for the B. F. Avery & Sons Plow Company, remaining there until September of last year. After conducting the publicity end of a good roads campaign in Milam county I became advertising manager for the Leyhe Piano Company, whose stores are scattered all over the state of Texas in a dozen prominent cities."

Mr. Carragher publishes a monthly magazine as an advertising medium for his concern under the name of "The Leyhenola," gotten up in a novel way.

Builds Up

This is the work of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Strength. Power. Reserve. Sold for 60 years.

Ask Your Doctor.

J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

—o—

I Want To Be the first one on your mind when in need of GLASSES.

One Price: Examination. Consultation, Glasses. As I am the only exclusive optometrist and manufacturing

Optician in Amarillo.

—o—

S. H. KELLER

With E. I. Pittman

408 Polk St. Phone 375

It has always been your desire and purpose to give your daughter at least one princely gift but you have felt that to do so would be unfair to the rest of the family. Solve the difficulty by presenting her with a pianola which will be a source of pleasure to all your loved ones.

LEYHE PIANO CO.
607 Polk St. Phone 740

NEW MUSLIN Underwear

A big lot of choice snowy white garments, correctly fashioned and tastefully trimmed are ready today. There is a wide range of styles and qualities, ranging in price from 75c for good muslin gowns, to $10.00 for gowns of silk.

$1.00 and $1.25 Gowns, high neck or slip-overs, yoke of all-over Embroidery, finished Embroidery Ruffles.

$1.50 Gown, made slip-over styles, of soft, longcloth, Nainsook and Crepe Plisse, trimmed in various neat and attractive styles.

$2.00 Gowns of fine striped Voile, trimmed with Val Lace Ribbon run of fine Nainsooks, Embroidery heading, ribbon run of fine longcloth, wide heading ribbon run, of Crepe Plisse, slip-over styles. Finer gowns at $2.50 to $10.00.

Princess Slips, combination suits, skirts and drawers in ample variety of qualities and styles.

WHITE DRESSES $5.00

You'll appreciate these when you come and see the materials, styles and consider the work and worry of assembling the materials and making. Suffice it to say, we consider the values so good that we direct your attention to a lot too varied to mention in detail—but containing values so good you'll be apt to choose a dress or two from these when you see them—Annex.

FOR $3.95 White P. K. Dresses, trimmed in Blue Linen for collars and cuffs, piped waist lines.

FOR $5.00 Pink and Lavender Dresses, trimmed with P. K. Lavender and pink buttons, White Kid Belts.

FOR $5.00 Ratine, Pink and Tan lines and dainty Voile Dresses neatly trimmed in contrasting shades—also of Ramie Linen.

FOR $5.00 Brown Natural Linen Dresses, Embroidered Collars, Cuffs and Bands, buttons. Visit the Annex.

HERE IS PART OF THE LETTER:

"Dear Florence:—Please go into White & Kirk's Store and tell them to send by P. P. a No. 22 Redfern Corset style No. 8484 price $5.00.

"This is the quality I had last season, only the style is one of those new models, giving the long straight lines. Mary Turner was in Amarillo last week and she bought one of these and it certainly does make her look stylish. You will please ask them to put in some samples of that wide Ramie Linen as I want to have a new dress made and fitted over my new corset."

That's the way Redfern reputation spreads—if you own a Redfern you're sure to help us sell another—because of their irresistible style and quality. Visit the Annex.

NEXT SATURDAY

is the day Miss Paulus of the McCall Co., is to be here to demonstrate McCall Patterns. It will be well to come whether you care to use McCall Patterns or not. The knowledge you'll gain may be applied to some extent, to dressmaking generally and of course, the more you know about McCall Patterns, the surer you'll be to use them.

Miss Paulus will be here for three days.

AMONG ALL THOSE PRETTY SHOES

you will find a very attractive model made of fine Tan Calfskin in a snug-fitting button style at $3.00.

A fine new model of brown buckskin with flexible welt sole at $4.00.

Fine White Buck Pumps and Button Oxfords at $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

A fine grade of soft Vici, with plain toe, Military Heel, Button Oxfords at $2.50—and a host of others.

BOYS' 25c POROS KNIT UNDERWEAR 15c

These garments are the regular 25c Poros Knit garments—the Drawers are in knee lengths and the shirts are short sleeves and we have all sizes from 24 to 34. Per suit 30c, garment 15c

WHITE & KIRK

The Place to Buy Shoes